

JUDGE OF SUPREME COURT INTERVENES FOR CONVICTED BOY

Grants Stay of Execution Day Before Execution at Sing Sing; Plans to Give the Boy a New Trial

(By Review Leased Wire.)
NEW YORK, July 29.—A stay of execution in behalf of Chas. Stielow, a farmhand, was granted tonight by Supreme Court Justice Guy, three hours before the man condemned to death for a double murder at Medina was to have been executed at Sing Sing prison. It was the second time since dawn that the jurist had intervened to save the life of Stielow, whose keepers in the death house and whose neighbors in his home town are firmly convinced he is innocent of the crime for which he was convicted.

The order directs the district attorney of Orleans County to show cause before a justice of the supreme court on August 23 why a new trial should not be granted Stielow.

Stielow was convicted of the murder of Charles Phelps, a farmer and his housekeeper, Margaret Wolcott, at Medina in July, 1915.

800,000 ARMENIANS SAID MASSACRED

Turkish are Reported Still Holding up U. S. Food For Refugees

(By Review Leased Wire.)
ATHENS, via London, July 31.—It is learned in semi-official Turkish communications that the Turkish government is holding up the shipment of American supplies destined for the relief of Armenians. The conditions of the Armenian refugees is said to be most pitiable. The total number of civilians massacred up to this time is put at 800,000, according to estimates made here.

SENATE DISCUSSES TARIFF ON DYES.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—The Senate finance committee of the administration discussed the revenue bill to suspend operation of the proposed protective tariff on dye stuffs until the close of the European war. The purpose of the tariff is to build up an American dye stuff industry and it has been urged before the committee because of the war virtually cutting off importation of dyes from Germany.

TRIALS OF IRELAND REVOLTERS ARE SECRET

LONDON, July 31.—The committee which has been sitting as a tribunal to hear appeals of the Sinn Fein prisoners will conclude its inquiry within a few days and present its report to the home office, with recommendations as to the manner of dealing with the prisoners.

ATTEST:
E. C. PORTER,
Ass't Clerk.

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF DRAGON TUNGSTEN COMPANY.
KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS:

That we, whose names are hereunto affixed, desiring to form a corporation under the laws of the State of Arizona, do hereby associate ourselves together for that purpose and adopt the following Articles of Incorporation:

ARTICLE I.
The names of the incorporators are: M. S. Clark, whose postoffice address is Dragoon, Arizona; Ellis O. Smith, whose postoffice address is Dragoon, Arizona; and Allan G. Waite, whose postoffice address is Dragoon, Arizona.

ARTICLE II.
The name of the corporation shall be DRAGON TUNGSTEN COMPANY.

ARTICLE III.
The principal place at which the business of the corporation is to be transacted is Dragoon, Cochise County, Arizona; the corporation may have such branch offices, either within or without the State of Arizona, as may be hereafter established by the board of directors, and at any branch office meetings of the board of directors may be held and any and all business transacted.

ARTICLE IV.
The nature of the business and objects and purposes for which this corporation is established, and which it may promote and carry on in any part of the United States or in any foreign country, as fully and to the same extent as natural persons might or could do, are as follows, to-wit:

To make contracts; to purchase, lease, hold or otherwise acquire, own, exchange, sell or otherwise dispose of, pledge, mortgage, hypothecate and deal in real estate and any and all kinds of personal property.

To locate, buy, lease, hold, sell, improve, develop and operate mines, including all kinds of shafts, adits, tunnels, petroleum, water, water, and water rights and machinery; to work, mine, explore, operate and develop the same and to pledge, mortgage or otherwise deal in the same or any leases, options or bonds thereon.

To quarry, smelt, refine, dress amalgamate and prepare for market, and to market ores, metals and mineral substances of all kinds, and to carry on any other operation which may seem conducive to any of the company's objects; to buy, sell, manufacture and deal in minerals, plants, machinery, implements, conveniences, provisions and things capable of being used in connection with mining operations or required by workmen and others employed by the corporation.

To buy, construct, lease, sell, convey, maintain, improve, manage, operate, work, control and superintend any roads, bridges, ways, reservoirs, water courses, canals, pipe lines, tramways, electric or other railways, or other works, the use of which may be lawful so long as to buy, construct, lease, sell, convey, maintain, improve, manage, control and superintend furnaces, smelters, concentrators, mills, crushing works, hydraulic works, works, factories, warehouses, and other conveniences which may seem directly or indirectly conducive to any of the objects of the corporation, and to contribute to, subsidize by otherwise aid or take part in any such operations.

To take, acquire, own, hold, sell, lease, exchange, mortgage, pledge, improve and otherwise deal in real estate townsites and divisions, lots or subdivisions thereof, and to erect thereon and lease, sell or convey houses, stores or other buildings, and to make and maintain all other necessary, desirable improvements in connection therewith; also to purchase, sell, exchange and otherwise deal in all kinds of personal property, merchandise, goods and chattels.

To do all things incident to or advantageous in the carrying on of either or all of said objects or purposes above stated.

To issue bonds, debentures or other forms of securities, obligations, of, to sell or hypothecate the same, and to secure the payment of the same by mortgage or otherwise upon all or any of the properties of the corporation.

To make any and all contracts, acquire and transfer any and all species of property, and to possess the same powers in such respect as private individuals now enjoy, and in general to do all things necessary to the proper conduct of the business of the corporation in the State and elsewhere, not inconsistent with the laws of the United States, the State of Arizona, or any foreign state or country.

To hold, purchase, buy and otherwise acquire, and to sell, exchange, mortgage, pledge and otherwise deal in the bonds, mortgages, notes, debentures, shares of capital stock and other securities of individual owners of private corporations, and also to receive, collect and otherwise dispose of interest, dividends or income from any of the properties held, owned or acquired by the company, and to exercise in respect to all such bonds, mortgages, debentures, notes, shares of capital stock and other securities and obligations, all the rights, powers and privileges of individual owners thereof, including the right to vote upon any share of stock held by it to the same extent that a natural person might or could do, and generally to have the rights, powers and privileges to do any and all things incident or advantageous to the carrying out of any of the objects and purposes hereinbefore mentioned.

To sell or issue all or any part of its capital stock, or any bonds, debentures or other evidences of indebtedness authorized by its board of directors, in payment for the goodwill, rights, business, personal property, real estate, or leases thereof, of any person, firm, association or corporation, and the judgment of its board of directors as to the values of such goodwill, rights, business, property, real estate or leases, or otherwise, shall, in the absence of fraud, be conclusive.

To guarantee the payment of dividends or interest on any share, stocks, debentures or other securities issued by, or any other contract or obligation of, any corporation whenever proper or necessary for the business of this company, and upon such terms and conditions and in such manner as may be prescribed by the by-laws or by resolution of the board of directors.

To purchase, hold or re-issue and sell the shares of its capital stock.

To remunerate any person, persons, or corporation for services rendered, or to be rendered, in placing, or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of any of the shares of the company's capital stock, or any debenture, bond or other security of the company, or for services rendered in or about the formation or promotion of the company, or the selection and procurement of directors, or the conduct of its business, all upon such terms as the board of directors may determine and approve.

To conduct business in any of the states, territories, colonies or dependencies of the United States, or in the District of Columbia, and in any and all foreign countries; to have one or more officers therein, and therein to hold, purchase, mortgage and convey real and personal property, without limit as to amount, but always subject to local laws.

The foregoing paragraphs shall be construed as objects, purposes and powers, and it is hereby expressly intended that the foregoing specific objects, purposes and powers in any paragraph enumerated, except where otherwise clearly indicated, shall not be limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other clause or paragraph of these articles.

ARTICLE V.
The authorized amount of capital stock of this corporation shall be THIRTY THOUSAND DOLLARS ($30,000), divided into THIRTY THOUSAND (30,000) SHARES, of the par value of ONE DOLLAR ($1.00) each. Upon subscription thereof said capital stock shall be paid into this corporation in such manner and upon such terms as the board of directors may fix, either in cash, services, or by the sale, transfer and assignment to the corporation of property, rights or interests therein, real or personal, for the uses and purposes of the corporation, and in payment for which shares of the capital stock of corporation may
